                      CITY ATTORNEY ANTHONY SMART
                      CLERK TREASURER MARY JO LYNCH
                      CHIEF DEPUTY ANGIE WALTERS

ABSENT:           WALT WILSON

After the Pledge of Allegiance, Mayor Weiss turned the meeting over to Chief Deputy Angie Walters and Clerk Treasurer Mary Jo Lynch to go over the 2017 Budgets with Council and answer any questions that they might have. CD Walters went through the package in front of Council explaining to them that the 2017 General Fund had to be cut a total of $710,000. She stated that she cut the budget $300,000 in 2016 and the remaining $410,000 in 2017. There was discussion about the circuit breaker cap ($410,000). Information was provided on the various types of revenue received by the city besides property taxes. There was discussion about how the City was going to have to cut costs in the future.

Council was provided with a spreadsheet of the 2017 Riverboat Projects that City Mgr. Lampert is working on. Mayor Weiss added that some projects have been put on hold due to lack of funds. Lastly, Clerk Lynch stated that as the Riverboat Project list was updated and expenses paid out, she would get copies to Council at each meeting.

There being no further business to come before the board, Councilman Mollaun made a motion to adjourn. With a second by Councilman McCool, the motion carried by voice 6-0.
